

Mr. Steve White

Executive Director
Marine Exchange of Alaska

- Captain Steve White joined the Marine Exchange as the Executive Director in September of 2021 after serving 31 years in the Coast Guard. His last assignment was Sector Commander and Captain of the Port for Southeast Alaska.
- Steve served 7 tours throughout Alaska including assignments to 4 ships, 2 of which he served as the Commanding Officer. His other tours included serving on a Coast Guard Atlantic Area ship, service with the Joint Forces Maritime Component Command, serving with Navy and Coast Guard forces in the Middle East and various other Coast Guard units. He has patrolled the Gulf of Alaska, Bering Seas, Arctic, Pacific, and Atlantic Oceans.
- Steve sat on the North Pacific Fisheries Management Council as the Coast Guard representative, served as the Enforcement Chair for the North Pacific Anadromous Fish Commission and was the Incident Commander for the Coast Guard's Arctic Operations.
- He graduated with a Bachelor's degree in Management from the US Coast Guard Academy, a Masters in National Security and Strategic Studies from the Naval War College and completed a Military Executive Fellowship program with the RAND Corporation.
- He has a passion for the maritime environment and particularly Alaska.